The competition was held in the early afternoon with 9 first time competitors and 22 competitors in the other categories. There were 4 sets of Twin Fiddlers. It was a full day for Garnet Knight, Patti Kosturuk, and Arlene Graham judging the competition. Registration started at 11:00 -1:00 at which time the competitors had an opportunity to practice with one of the accompanists, Mathieu Reimer or Jeremy Rusu.

Mark Morisseau and contestants had a Jam session while the judges put their heads together to choose the gold, silver and bronze medallists.
