

Lucien Laramée

April 11, 1935 - January 6, 2024

Lucien Laramée of the music band “Small Town Limits” was born in La Broquerie Manitoba. He started playing fiddle at the age of 11 learning from watching his dad Philippe play. His main influences were his Uncles Octave and Leon Parisein, also the Freynet brothers and of course Andy Dejarlis, Eugene Laderoute & many others. Lucien played at all kinds of gatherings.

Lucien got people on the dance floor the second his bow hit those strings so they always had him play. The tunes he learned quickly & were very danceable. One of Lucien’s favorite memories on stage was in the late 1980's when they played on CBC TV at the Festival du Voyageur.

For his dedication to playing and excelling in fiddle music in his community and province, Manitoba Fiddle Association recognizes Lucien Laramée as an outstanding Fiddler/Performer!
